To the DAILY GAZETTEER.

HAVING been told, That in a late Champion, and another Paper almost as scurrilous, there were horrid Reflections upon a Person of great Authority in his Majesty's Island of B—, I own it gave me Pain, and that I was impatient for the next Advice from that Colony.

I am now arriv'd; and by my own Letters, as well as those I have seen in the Hands of Merchants from that distant Planters on the Spot, I think I am able to do some Justice to that Character: And therefore when you have Room I insist upon a Place in your Paper for what follows, that the Candid Reader may then judge who deserves most to be loaded with Chains, his Ex—y, or the Mischance that has abus'd both him and the M—y, by whom he was thought worthy to be visit'd with the very sensible that the Libellers have no Mandate of Credit with any but Weak and Prejudic'd Men; and therefore I shall take no further Notice of their scandalous Flights at his Ex—y's Character, than just to confute a Charge in an Address lately printed, as from the Assembly, which taxes his having abus'd his Authority, by displacing the ablest and most experienc'd Officer they had, at Jamaica when they might have most Need of him, with having thereby reduc'd his Majesty's Royal Regiment of Foot-Guards to a Condition not easily to be retriev'd, and by having brought the Fifth Part of the Militia to a State, by his popular Conduct. In fine, the Addressers are pleas'd to say that their Settlement and Present, tho' voluntary and liberal, have not engag'd him to make his Government agreeable to the People; and they scruple not to express their Fears, that every Method will be taken to make the Inhabitants uneasy. A very Charge this!

But you may now, from the above undoubted Authority, assure your Readers, to the Shame of those Libellers if they were capable of blushing, 'That the Regiment of Royal Guards is not only compleated, but well officer'd, by Men of Abilities and Reputation, inferior to none of their Predecessors: That the G—y, by his mild and good-natur'd Behaviour to all, and even to those who affect to show themselves his Enemies, increases the Number of his Friends every Day: so that a very little Time is like to put an End to all their Differences. For he is generally acknowledg'd, that the G—y has the real Welfare of the Island at Heart, and is diligent and careful in the Administration of Justice; That he is a Man of Business, Spirit, and good Conduct in all his Actions, very ready to do good Offices, and desirous of serving the Island: And some don't stick to say, that he already knows more of the Constitution of the Island than all his Predecessors, or any of the Planters, ever knew.'— Yet is this Honourable Personage abus'd by the Wardens of Hockley in the Hole, as making it his Study to find out Ways and Means to pillage the people he should protect.

Flenna, October 3. N. S.

It has been given out that the Marriage of the General de Schulembourg to the Princess Dowager of Lichenstein would not be celebrated till after the death of the Velt Marshal de Schulembourg at Venice; but we are privately inform'd, that the said Marriage is actually perform'd, and that the General has been at Venice to desire his Uncle's Consent, which he not only obtain'd, but an Assurance he would take care that the said Lady should have her Dowry from the Lichenstein Family, and the same Assurance had been given him by the Duchess of Kendal, (by Birth Countess of Schulembourg) who has made a considerable Settlement on her. The Dowry which his Lady is to enjoy, together with her Residence in the Palace at Dowagor to the Prince of Lichenstein, amounts to 14000 Florins a Year. 'Tis said, the Velt Marshal de Schulembourg and the Lady Duchess of Kendal have a mind to purchase them a Lordship of the same Revenue, and that the new-married Couple are willing to go to live at Verona, till the said Velt Marshal otherwise disposes of them, or till he resigns his Office of Velt Marshal of Venice and the Military Command of that Republick, in his Favour. The Gardener of the Palace of Querengen, has complain'd, that the Turkish Ambassador and his Retinue have devour'd the best of his Melons, Cucumbers, and other Fruits, of which he should otherwise have made a good deal of Money. 'Tis resolv'd to compenat all the Emperor's Forces, both Horse and Foot, this Winter. There's an uncertain Report that the Grand Signior has been poison'd. The Turkish Ambassador here, who sees no Foreign Minister but the French, and converses with no body but some Greek Merchants or Armenians, has sent away 90 Persons more of his Retinue for Belgrade, because of the many Quarrels they have, which are generally begun over the Bottle and determin'd by the Sword.

The Second Edition, with a Preface, in which the same objection against the Work is obviated, and the Author's Reasons in publishing it at this Time accounted for.

Concerning Gleet and Seminal Weakness of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons

allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleet and Seminal Weakness, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, Strains, Pollution sui, or any other Cause whatever; but that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infirm the whole Nervous System, often bring on Heedick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy of Nervous Constitutions, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleet, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Discharge of Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most ardently may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMIC RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experience'd never one to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleet known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; at all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, which almost instantly cure, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner; and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMIC RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly throughout the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, inasmuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigu'd with Gleet or Seminal Weakness of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surpris'd at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleet and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declar'd.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radcliffe's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready seal'd up, with a Box of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads, will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with, succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is entirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamic Electuary.

The HEMORRHOIDS or PILES

A very troublesome Distemper, common to many Persons of all Sexes, and all Ages, and if neglected, or ill manag'd, is proving dangerous in its Consequences, and being thoroughly cur'd without Relapse,

IS the Reason of this Publication,

that all such Persons of either Sex, or any Age, may have where to have present Relief, and in a few Days perfect Cure, let their Case be ever so bad, or the Piles of any Kind, inward or outward, swell'd or bleeding, or of the very worst Sort that ever was known.

By a pleasant and delightful Chymical Powder, which in its Effects, that not one in five thousand that take it, is a Cure; and safe in Operation, that the most aged, or young Infants, may take it with the greatest Safety, neither purges nor causes the least Disorder to the Patient, only operates gently by Urine, and keeps the Body cool and temperate; but it very powerfully resolves both the Blood and Juices, takes off the Acridness thereof, which is the true Cause of this Distemper, and destroys its Root and Branch, so that many thousands that have taken it find to their unspeakable Comfort and Satisfaction.

It is sold for 3 s. 6 d. each Box, at Mr. King's Place in the Poultry; and at Mr. Martin's, a Haberdashery Sign of the Duke of Cumberland, in Cranbourn-Alley near Leicester-Fields, and no where else in England.

LONDON: Printed for T. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-noster Row.
